Dec. 17th ~ Third Sunday of Advent

Sunday Bible Reflections by Dr. Scott Hahn

Straighten the Path

Isaiah 61:1-2, 10-11      Luke 1:46-50, 53-54
1 Thessalonians 5:16-24      John 1:6-8, 19-28

The mysterious figure of John the Baptist, introduced in last week's readings, comes into sharper focus today. Who he is, we see in today's Gospel, is best understood by who he isn't.

He is not Elijah returned from the heavens (see 2 Kings 2:11), although like him he dresses in the prophet's attire (see Mark 1:6; 2 Kings 1:8) and preaches repentance and judgment (see 1 Kings 18:21; 2 Chronicles 21:12-15).

Not Elijah in the flesh, John is nonetheless sent in the spirit and power of Elijah to fulfill his mission (see Luke 1:17; Malachi 3:23-24).

Neither is John the prophet Moses foretold, although he is a kinsman and speaks God's word (see Deuteronomy 18:15-19; John 6:14). Nor is John the Messiah, though he has been anointed by the Spirit since the womb (see Luke 1:15, 44).

John prepares the way for the Lord (see Isaiah 40:3). His baptism is symbolic, not sacramental. It is a sign given to stir our hearts to repentance.

John shows us the One upon whom the Spirit remains (see John 1:32), the One who fulfills the promise we hear in today's First Reading (see Luke 4:16-21). Jesus' bath of rebirth and the Spirit opens a fountain that purifies Israel and gives to all a new heart and a new Spirit (see Zechariah 13:1-3; Ezekiel 36:24-27; Mark 1:8; Titus 3:5).

John comes to us in the Advent readings to show us the light, that we might believe in the One who comes at Christmas. As we sing in today's Responsorial, the Mighty One has come to lift each of us up, to fill our hunger with bread from heaven (see John 6:33, 49-51).

And as Paul exhorts in today's Epistle, we should rejoice, give thanks, and pray without ceasing that God will make us perfectly holy in spirit, soul, and body – that we may be blameless when our Lord comes.

Parish Reconciliation Service

Part of Advent preparation includes the Sacrament of Reconciliation. On December 17 at 7:00 p.m., we will hold a penance service for the entire church community. There will be several priests available to hear confessions. I encourage you to take time to attend this service as part of your preparation during this Advent season.

~Fr. Hung Q. Pham

Why is the Christmas Mass Schedule Different this year?

The Christmas Mass schedule is different this year because a priest has the faculty to say (is only allowed to say) up to 3 Masses on any given day. Normally, this isn't a problem.

However, since Christmas Eve is also the 4th Sunday of Advent this year, it is a problem. By the time we have our 2 regular Masses Sunday morning for the 4th Sunday of Advent, Father Pham can only say one more Mass that day. In order to meet the needs of both Caldwell and Wellington, Father Pham had to ask for help. Father Beat agreed to come to Wellington for a Mass while Father Pham goes to Caldwell for a Mass.

Thank you for your understanding.

Ministers Needed for Holy Days

Extraordinary Ministers, Lectors, Ushers, Sacristans and Mass Servers are needed for Christmas Masses. A sign-up sheet is located in the back of the church or email Kim Langford at klangford@usd353.com.

Calendars

There are 2018 Catholic calendars available in the back of the Church. Please feel free to take one!

Thank you to Cornejo/Day Funeral Home who sponsors the calendars each year.

Christmas Call to Sharing

One of the greatest blessings in the Diocese of Wichita is that a young man is free to enter seminary without worrying about the cost of his private education.

Please consider a gift this year for Christmas Call to Sharing to support our 46 seminarians and 23 retired priests.

~Bishop Kemme

At the normal Masses for the 4th Sunday of Advent, December 23 and 24, two seminarians, Matthew Cooke and Dillon Cott, will be here to express their thanks on behalf of all seminarians for our gifts to the Christmas Call to Sharing and to talk about what our gifts mean to them.

My soul rejoices in my God
